

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT DENVER
AND HEALTH SCIENCES CENTER

Bard Center for Entrepreneurship
535 16th Street, Suite 300
Denver, Colorado 80202-4235

Business Plan Competition Winners 2002

First Place: The Manor at Castle Pines, Jim Christopherson

The Manor at Castle Pines will be a large and beautiful event center whose design, layout, ambiance and business model all cater to couples that desire a captivating facility in which they create their dream wedding.

Second Place: Provisions Specialty Market, Maureen Lawer

Provisions will offer downtown Denver residents a more complete and enjoyable food shopping experience with a broad base of specialty and basic food items.

Third Place: EZPark, Scott Beckley, Bob Tettero, Alicia Linares

EZPark is a fast and convenient method of paying for metered parking with your cell phone. It is a cashless service that allows payment for parking with the security of your credit card.

Finalist: Pet Gear, Inc, Scott Sherman, Tonya Peck

Pet Gear is a premier pet supply store that provides customers with superior service and the highest quality product. Promoting an active healthy quality of life through offering natural/human grade foods, accessories and appealing retail atmosphere.

Finalist: Customer Connections & Innovations, Inc, Amy Deitemeyer

CCI is a custom research company specializing in customer satisfaction analysis. CCI is a link for companies to stay connected to their customers through customized customer satisfaction programs.

Finalist: The Seventh Inning Sports Grill, Michael Bradley

The Seventh Inning Sports Grill will be the premier South-Denver area location to watch a sporting event in a 100% non-smoking environment.