GENERAL INFORMATION

I. Academic Advising:

- ◆ Academic Advising is available throughout the year, and students should meet with an advisor at least once a year.
- ◆ All new students MUST meet with an advisor before registering to review degree requirements and place any transfer credits.
- ◆ Freshmen and undeclared students are assigned to the Student Success Center in NC 1503 (303-352-3520).
- ◆ Transfer students and declared CAM majors with 30+ credits are assigned to the CAM Advising Office (see above).
- ◆ Students should try to create a plan before seeing an advisor using the Course Search & Schedule Planner.
- ◆ All CAM Majors will have an advising STOP placed on their registration periodically throughout their academic career, which will be lifted upon meeting with an advisor. Students will be notified in advance of the stop via e-mail.

II. Registration Information:

- ◆ The Course Search & Schedule Planner is available on-line through the Registrar's website:
www.ucdenver.edu/registrar.
- ◆ Students are encouraged to register as soon as possible. Registration date & time and any registration blocks, can be viewed through the SMART system (under "Reg Status").

III. Graduation Information:

- ◆ Students must apply to graduate by the beginning of their last semester on-line under the SMART link. Deadlines will be published in the academic calendar, available on-line through the Registrar's website.
