University of Colorado Denver Hosts William Kanengiser

DENVER (Jan. 27, 2009) – The University of Colorado Denver College of Arts and Media (CAM) Department of Music & Entertainment Industry Studies is hosting a performance workshop lead by William Kanengiser, Grammy award-winning guitarist and member of the Los Angeles Guitar Quartet. The performance is free and open to the public.

WHO: A founding member of the Los Angeles Guitar Quarter, William Kanengiser is world-renowned artist who has traveled across the country and to Europe and Asia. His eclectic classical guitar styling has won the praise of The Los Angeles Times that has described his “dizzying execution” and “exceeding vitality and warmth”. Kanengiser’s experience spans decades and geography as he has had the pleasure to compose for and play with an array of musicians.

Several UC Denver CAM guitar students will have their performances critiqued by Kanengiser during his performance workshop.

WHEN: Friday, Jan. 30, 2009
2-4 p.m.

WHERE: University of Colorado Denver Downtown Campus
King Center Recital Hall
855 Lawrence Way
Denver, CO 80204
